Guardsmen Get Money From Uncle Sam.

Hawaii's soldiers received their first money for military service from Uncle of Camp McKinley, as paymaster distributed nearly $1600 at the bungalow to National Guardsmen for their services while in camp with the artillery

The private soldiers each got $2.17 for their five days' service in camp, while the highest amount of course went to Colonel Jones, who received

Some of the soldiers didn't appear overly pleased with the amount of compensation which the United States government awarded them. "What did I tell you," said one private as he left with his money. "You fellows won't camp any more now, I

"Where are our two dollars a day?" The members of the band drew the same pay as the privates, but Captain at the flag raising ceremony here in Berger didn't get a cent. There was Berger was down in the records as band-master with rank of Captain. Captain's pay would have entitled him ing. to $25. But the regular army bandmaster doesn't rank as captain, but only as chief musician and Berger's status will have to be explained before he can draw anything.

The hospital corps was the best paid. ts members each received $2.67. Staff officers also were better paid companies received $25 for the five days' service, First Lieutenants $20.83 and Second Lieutenants $19.44. Lieutenants on staff received $22.22. First Sergeants were paid $4.73, ordinary sergeants received $3 even, and corporais man in the regiment was put in separate envelopes at Washington. each man's name was called, Captain Douglass tore the envelope open and gave him the money. Lieutenant Behr of the Artillery and Captain Gorman of the National Guard assisted in the payment. The staff officers, hospital corps and bandsmen were first paid off and then the companies in alphabetical order. All the companies but "D" of Hilo were paid off last night. Captain Douglas will go to Hilo next week to pay off those men as well. The total amount distributed last night was $1580.

Paymaster Arthur S. Brown, U. S. N. arrived yesterday on the Alameda to succeed the late Paymaster Rhodes at the Naval Station. He was accompanied by Pay Clerk Oliver G. Haskett, who will succeed Acting Paymaster MacWilkie. Mr. MacWilkie, who has been in service here both under Pavmaster Hall and Paymaster Rhodes, leaves on the Alameda on November 18 and will report at Washington for reassignment to duty. Mr. MacWilkie has been an efficient official and is always courteous to the press.

Paymaster Brown was stationed on Sam last evening. Captain Douglas the receiving ship Independence at Mare Island when he received orders to come to Honolulu, and is now taking his first active assignment since his appointment to the Navy in August. He had first been ordered to the Asiatic Station and was making preparations to depart for Manila when rush instructions came from Washington to come to Honolulu on the first steamer. Paymaster Brown is one of the youngest men in the service, being only 23 years of age, and his appointment to Honolulu is looked upon as a high compliment. He is a native of California.
